THE POLICE INVESTIGATION

Schedy Secured to Want to Swear to the Charges,

Yesterday afternoon the Commissioners took their first official action in regard to the police investigation. Some days ago Major Moore said that he could not consistently sign the charges in the form in which they had been made up. They were merely affldavits, he said, made by different men, and the charges contained in them had been

The Commissioners then referred the evidence to District Attorney Hazleton, who yesterday afternoon forwarded the Commissioners the following communi-

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMNIS, July 1.

How. Henry M. Robert, Communication of the District of Columbia:
Sim: My assistant, Mr. Richardson, left with me a package of papers, which involve experie statements and charges against certain officers of the police force, and he reports that he was instructed by you verbally that, in case Major Moore declined to sign these charges, you requested me to algu these charges, you requested me to Go so.

Section 6 of the rules and regulations, as to trials and defenses of this kind, provides as follows: "Charges preferred against any member of the police force must be in writing and sworn to oc affirmed. But this shall not apply to complaints or charges made by any Commissioner, the major, captain or any lieutenant, who may charge simply in writing."

or any licutenant, who may charge simply in writing."

You will observe that this exception does not technice any member of the Attorney's office. And as the law stands no charge of the kind would be valid signed by me, unless sworm to also by me. Of course you did not expect me to make oath to these charges, having an personal knowledge of the aubject matter therein contained. These matters fall properly under the jurisdiction primarily of Commissioner Hine. But no doubt you could make the charge without attesting to the truthfulness of the arme, as the language is "by any commissioner."

attristing to the truthfolioses of the same, as the language is "by any commissioner."

But in questions of this kind it seems to me that the sanction of at least a majority of the Board of Commissioners should be given to the institution of such proceedings when they commissioners about the given to the institution of such proceedings when they emanate from any one of its members, as they are grave and important, and must, in the cod, to be of any effect, fall under the action and jurisdiction of at least a majority of the board.

I do not presume at this time to passetter upon the form or the morils of the charges submitted for my signature, as that would be going beyond the scope of your verbal request, and in declining to sign the charges I do so very respectfully, as you yourself see that the law furnishes a good and sufficient reason for so doing. I withhold the papers subject to your further order. Yours truly,

Genome C. Hazulton,

Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Attorney for the District of Columbia. There seems to be a difference of pinion among the Commissioners as to the manner in which testimony should be given. Colonel Robert still maintains that the charges should be made by the whole hoard in the form of an order. ommissioner Hine objects to bringing into the investigation matters that go back three or four years or longer. He insists that all charges should be sworn to before they are allowed to carry any

Contesting for Tennis Honors,

The closing contest between Barnard and Butterworth for the tennis chainplonship of Le Droit Park and the ploushtp of Le Droit Park and the Reineck trophy took place yesterday afternoon. The work of the two men was very fine, but that of Butterworth particularly deserved the applause given by the spectators. After an exciting contest Butterworth won, the acore being 64, 63, 57, 61. In the afternoon Doyle and Ginest beat Brooks and Wright in the prize doubles by a score of 6.2, 4.6, 6.3. The winners will play Williams and Barnard, the finals, for the second prize on Saturday next. The second prize singles and doubles will be second prize singles and doubles will be finished this week.

ANOTHER GAME

WON FROM THE HARTFORDS BY HEAVY HITTING

EFFORTS TO PURCHASE THE FRANCHISE

A Stock Company Proposed ... A Venture That May Succeed and the Team Retained Here.

The fact that the Washington Club cade an assignment had nothing to do with the playing of the team yesterday. The men played just as hard, if not a harder, game than has characterized. their work of late, and won a well car ned victory. Maloney was put in to itch for the home team, but the visitors fell on his delivery in the third inning and pounded out five runs. It gave them a lead, and in order to save the game Sullivan substituted Underwood, who pitched winning ball thereafter. Staib, who was such a puzzle to the Washington's when that team played in Hartford, evidently lost his cunning, for the boys fairly slaughtered him, making the boys fairly slaughtered him, making seventeen hits, many of which were for more than single bases. Had Stalb not received excellent support in the field the defeat would have been overwhelm-ing. Underwood was also excellently supported, Bader and Jordan making several phenomenal catches of appar-ently safe hits.

ently safe hits.

Yesterday's defeat crowds the Hartfords into inst place, for Wilmington won from Jersey City, and got out of the hole in which it has been located all season. The Wilmington and Hartford teams play to-day, and the games will decide which will be consigned to last

The last year's champions, the Worcesters, meet the Washingtons to-day at Capitol Park, weather permitting. Daniels will pitch for the local team and Stafford for the visitors. The home team has atruck a winning gait, and a good game can be looked for

THE OUTLOOK. The assignment made by the Wash gton Club yesterday was the all-absorbing topic of conversation among ball people. There was considerable diversity of opinion as to whether the club would be continued, but the gen-eral opinion seemed to be that there was too much self-pride here to allow the club to be disbanded.

Already a movement is on foot to purchase the team and put it on its feet. The scheme was briefly outlined in yesterday's Carrie, to capitalize a stock company at $10,000, divided into fifty shares of $200 each. It is thought there will not be any trouble in getting twenty five or thirty gentlemen to put up the accessary amount. The fran chise can be purchased very cheaply and a handsome surplus left with which to purchase players and leave a sufficient balance in the treasury with which to carry on the team. The movement will take definite shap cithin the next few days and an offer made to the assignee for the franchise. Mr. liewett is willing to go Into the company to a limited amount, but he does not want a very large share of it. Canvassers will commence work to day or to morrow to see if they cannot get the requisite subscriptions, and the en-couragement the idea has already re-ceived seems to justify the prediction that it will be successful.

With a little strengthening the team would be as strong as any in the Asso ciation, and if it were fighting for the permant with any chance of winning it the attendance would be large enough to make the venture a profitable one.

The new organization would be free from debt, and with an assured income from the games sufficient to pay all ex-penses as it went along. The promoters of the plan are sanguine of succeeding, and will use every endeavor to keep the

In the event of the plan not succeed-ng and the club being disbanded, there s every reason to believe that another tub will be located here within a short time, The Brooklyn team of the American Association is in financial distress and Kennedy could be easily induced to transfer it to this city. There was a rumor last night that John B. Day was seriously thinking of putting the New York League team here, but the rumor is too ridicu-lous to attach any credence to. The League would not allow Day to desert New York in the present fight with the Brotherhood and leave an open field for the enemy. The only sub-stantial hope that the Washington en thusfasts have for a continuation of baseball in this city is the reorganization of the present club, or the transfer here of the Brooklyn Association team. The outlook is exceedingly bright for the retention of the present team, how ever, and so we may all be happy yet, notwithstanding Mr. Hewett's assign to the Commissioners:

Whereas the District Commissioners, in accordance with the expressed wish of the Federation of Labor, have groundly issued an order that the wages of public laborers shall be sufficent introducional the District.

Excelsed, That the Federation of Labor commonds this just act, and expresses the hope that a further consideration of the matter will prompt the Commissioners at an early day to direct the observance of the laws of the District fixing eight hours as a laws of the District fixing eight hours as day's work and $1 as a day's pay for a public laborers.

TROUBLE IN LABOR CIRCLES.

The Typographical Union and the Presamen at Loggerheads.

Three months ago there was a separation by a majority of the local pressmer from the Typographical Union, who affiliated themselves with the International Printing Pressmen's Union.
The object of the change was to bring about a greater solidity in the pressman's craft and in hope that it would make easier the task of craft legislation.

make easier the task of craft legislation. All the down-town pressmen, save in one establishment, joined in the movement as well as a majority in the Government Printing Office.

Subsequently the officers of the Typographical Union held a meeting to take steps looking toward the crowding out of the Government Printing Office of the leading spirits in the new organization. Charges have now been made of conspiracy to injure the Typographical Union against James E. Hardy, E. A. Duff, Frank Frazier, — Dunn and A. W. Lewis, and coupled with the charges is a request to Public Printer. charges is a request to Public Printer Paimer that he recognize the Typo-graphical Union as the representative organization for pressmen and that the al-leged conspirators be discharged. There may be a strike at the Government Printing Office. Mr. Palmer is credited with saying that he cannot give in to any extraordinary demands, and that if any should go on a strike for so trivial a cause they would never again get a footing in the Government Printing Office.
